Missionary of the Week

The Brunk Family – Missionaries in Maui, HI.

Our biggest obstacle in transitioning to an in-person Bible study is finding a place to meet. One location we began seriously considering, is in the town next to ours. Though we believe God has called us to begin a work in the town of Wailuku, we recognized that beginning the work (even in the next town) was more important than doing nothing. We trusted that if it was God's leading then He would open the door and we would follow. We were able to secure a large meeting space near us. The first night of Bible study we had 5 adults, 1 teen, and 1 baby join our family!
