Missionary of the Week

The Caviness Family – Republic of Congo

We have officially arrived at language school! After a month of praying, packing, and planning we said our goodbyes and began the 3,200-mile journey from Oregon to Quebec. From covid testing to customs, we saw God provide, protect, and guide our every step. Thank you so much for your prayers! The opportunity to begin our language learning in person and not virtually is a direct answer to months of fervent prayer. Praise the Lord! Our classes start full-time this week. Please pray for us as we will have a very intensive schedule. We are praying that the Lord would help us to not simply pass a class, but truly learn the language!
